If yes, please explain:

Note: Summer fees are non-refundable. No refund or reduction in tuition, registration, or program fees will be made to any student who violates summer program guidelines. During the BHCS summer program, school rules will be applied. Students are required to follow and respect the school rules and regulations of BHCS.

The school has the right to withdraw, at any time during the course, any student who fails to comply with the standards and expectations upheld by the school.

By signing below, I/We, the student and parent, hereby, understand the services and conditions of BHCS and agree to comply with all its rules, regulations, and policies.

If the required number of participants do not register for the English camp the camp may not commence. Therefore, it is recommended that you register as early as possible to secure your spot and increase the likelihood of the camp proceeding as planned. In the event that the English camp is cancelled, any registration fees paid will be fully refunded.
